

DRACUT KENPO KARATE

PRESENTS

DR. NICK CHAMBERLAIN

AND

KIYOSHI TAKEUCHI

Dr. Chamberlain opened his first dojo (karate school) in Chelmsford, MA in 1981 and has continued teaching and training ever since. He holds an 8th degree Black Belt in Kenpo and his headquarters school is in Dallas, Texas.

He is pleased to join his long time friend and student, Shihan George Thibault at his dojo in Dracut, MA to present an exciting workshop on Kenpo/Jiu-Jitsu and Grappling. He will share the knowledge gained from over 30 years of training with some of the worlds greatest instructors in Kenpo, Jiu-Jitsu, Judo & Kajukenbo.

You will learn and be able to apply: Defenses from a variety of attacks utilizing throws, takedowns and hold-downs, Ground fighting skills for the karateka, 2 person flow drills and submissions, and both sides of the 2-person grappling kata "Corcovado".

Special Guest Instructor Kiyoshi Takeuchi, Shihan, will join us and cover stick and knife defenses from the Fuji-Ryu Tai-Jutsu system. He is the US. Representative for Fuji Ryu and now lives and teaches in New York City. He also holds Black Belt rankings in Kodokan Judo, Nakamura Batto-Do and Kyokushin karate.

This is a unique opportunity to learn from instructors with real cross training experience! Come join us for some great training and have fun. See you on the mat!

Saturday, June 13th 2009, from 9am-12pm

$30 for the 3 hour workshop ($40 at the door)
